The Growth of Our Great Housefurnishing Department

The story of our growth from a small housefurnishing department to the leading housefurnishing center of America is the story of the closest application to the needs of the public.

Our housefurnishing business has developed through the constancy to our purpose—in developing a department where every imaginable household article will be found—an ability to build a comprehensive department for the furnishing of every reputable need in the housekeeping line. That we have been successful is evidenced by the fact that our leadership is unquestioned—that we are pre-eminently the Greatest Housefurnishing Store in America.

Our Housefurnishing Department is easily accessible from the ground floor, just as you come in to the G Street end of our building, or can be readily reached from our F Street entrance.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels Will Go to Annapolis Saturday.

Nevitt-Goodrich Wedding at Noon Today—Mrs. Riker Hostess at Buffet Luncheon—Dinners.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, accompanied by Commander D. W. Wurtzbaugh and Mrs. Wurtzbaugh, will go to Annapolis Saturday to witness the foot ball game between the academy and the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College teams.

Miss Marion Campbell Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott B. Goodrich, and Mr. Robert Israel Nevitt, son of Mrs. Annie A. Nevitt, were married at noon today at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The bride wore a lovely gown of midnight blue chiffon tulle, with a hat of green velvet trimmed with gold and white. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Pauline Spengler was her only attendant, and she wore a gown of wistaria tulle, with a hat of gold lace.

Mr. Garrett Nevitt acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Nevitt left immediately after the ceremony for their wedding trip. They will be at home after November 15 at 6805 6th street, Takoma.

Mr. William Phillips, third secretary of the State Department, entertained at luncheon today at his residence on L street a group of Japanese, including the Japanese ambassador, Mr. Hiro Harada, also a member of the commission.

A dinner to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their graduation from the United States Naval Academy was given last night at the Metropolitan Club.

There were present Rear Admirals Stockton, Barber, Book, Brownson, Craig, Ide, Mead, Perry, Reiter and Snow. Some of these gentlemen have come from their homes at distant points to enjoy the reunion with others who live in this city, and today the entire party is visiting Annapolis.

The marriage of Miss Rebekah Wilmer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Hollander Wilmer and Mr. Thomas Alexander Scott Thropp will take place at the Church of the Epiphany Wednesday, November 2, at 10 o'clock. The ceremony will be followed by a small reception at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Wilmer.

Miss Katherine Linn of Chicago is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Crane, 3d, at their home in this city.

Miss Harriet Grendle Conger, whose marriage to Lieut. Donald Wheeler Hamilton, U. S. N., will take place tomorrow afternoon, was the guest of honor at a number of interesting hospitalities yesterday.

Mrs. Bayard Hyde Smith gave a luncheon for the bride and her attendants, and later in the afternoon Mrs. S. I. Mattingly entertained them informally at tea.

Lieut. Hamilton gave a dinner at the Army and Navy Club last night. Miss Conger and the members of her wedding party, and tonight Mr. and Mrs. Ward Brown will entertain them at dinner, later taking the entire party to the Chevy Chase Club to dance.

The marriage of Miss Catherine G. Blaisey and Mr. Michael P. Connor, Jr. of Texas, Md., took place today at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Mr. James H. Mackin.

The marriage of Miss Louise Einstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Einstein of 142 Harvard street northwest, and Lieut. George Kent Shuler, U. S. N., of Lyons, N. Y., took place at noon today at the residence of the Rev. C. A. Rubenstein, in Baltimore, Md. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families. The young bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth trimmed with skunk fur. Her black silk beaver hat had skunk trimmings, and she wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. After a wedding breakfast Lieut. and Mrs. Shuler left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Upon their return they will reside at Winthrop, Md., where the groom is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bryant of China, Miss Corcoran of Canada and Mr. and Mrs. George Farrell of Chicago were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Powers of the Cathedral.

The Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Houston, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Breckinridge and Mr. Francis G. Caffey of New York, returned to Washington yesterday from Hot Springs, Va. They made the trip by automobile, stopping off at Middletown, Va., en route.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Switzer are spending two weeks at Harpers Ferry, October 24 and 25. Mrs. Switzer celebrated their first wedding anniversary. They received many congratulations, flowers and gifts from their friends in honor of the event.

Representative and Mrs. Philip P. Campbell and family returned to Washington, and are now at their country place on Mount Vernon avenue.

Mrs. Eli Murray Blandford, with her two small sons, left last night for her home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Blandford has enjoyed a pleasant stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Burch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McFadyen entertained informally at their home, on Harvard street, last evening for Miss Mildred Austelle, whose marriage to Mr. George Franklin McInturf, Jr., takes place next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein announce the engagement of their daughter Rae to Mr. Edward Barnett.

Mrs. Catherine Robey entertained recently at her residence, 209 Q street northwest, in honor of her cousin, Miss Mary Lynch of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is here. Those present were Mrs. Robey, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Galvin, Mr. Larke, Miss Teresa Shilling, Miss Ethel Shilling, Mrs. Mamie Shilling, Miss Mary Lynch, Miss Mary Robey, Mrs. Georgiana Robey, Master Robert Robey and Miss Dora Seebode.

Announcement was made last evening of the engagement of Miss Frances Marion Fatten, daughter of Mr. J. A. Fatten of Gary, Ind. and Mr. William Cooper of Gary, formerly of Gary, but now of Youngstown, Ohio. Mr. Fatten, who is the son of Robert Fatten, mayor of Nashville, Tenn., is a grandson of President Wilson. The wedding will take place in Gary during Thanksgiving week.

Hedlan, to Ensign Sifrein Fontane Maury, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Maury of Morristown, N. J., will take place very quietly Thursday evening, November 11, at the apartment of the bride-elect's grandmother in Baltimore. The ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock in the presence of only the members of the two families, owing to mourning in the family of Ensign Maury, and later in the evening the bride and groom will leave on a wedding journey.

Mrs. C. R. Dufour, wife of Dr. Dufour of this city; Mrs. J. L. Looe and Mrs. L. A. Clark are the guests of Mrs. A. Kendall at her home in Maryland, Pa., in whose honor she entertained with luncheon and cards Wednesday afternoon, October 29. The decorations were yellow chrysanthemums with Halloween place cards and favors. Thirteen was the number of tables, making fifty-two players, one for each card in the pack except the joker. Other residents of Maryland will entertain them during their visit.

Miss Marion West is visiting Mrs. Elizabeth J. Stinemetz at 1446 Irving street. Miss West will remain until the marriage of her brother, Mr. Vernon E. West, and Miss Nina Van Arsdale November 4, when she will act as maid of honor.

Miss Katherine Du Bose is entertaining a few friends informally at tea this afternoon at 5 o'clock to meet Miss Heyl.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Albert L. Mills will leave Washington Saturday for San Francisco, where Gen. Mills will attend the annual convention of the National Guard Association of the United States.

Miss Elvora Wallace Lamkins, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. G. Lamkins of this city, was married last week evening at Wellsboro, W. Va., to Mr. Sebastiano Degustiano of Rome, Italy. Mr. and Mrs. Degustiano will make their future home at 121 North 7th street, Steubenville, Ohio.

Rear Admiral A. S. Snow, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Snow have arrived in Washington from their home in Brookline, Mass. They have spent several weeks and are stopping at the Foxhatch.

Mrs. Charles Nelson Riker entertained at a buffet luncheon today in compliment to Miss Julia Heyl, whose marriage to Mr. Colquitt will take place November 2.

Mrs. Riker received in a handsome gown of blue and gold brocade, the bride was assisted by her mother, Mrs. William F. Dennis, who wore a gown of ivory-tinted satin.

A wedding of interest to friends in this city took place in the chapel of Holy Trinity, Baltimore, Monday morning. The bride was Miss Mary Louise Herbert of Baltimore, secretary to Sister Carmelita, director of the hospital, and the groom was Mr. Raphael Augustine Neale of Washington and Chattanooga. Mr. Neale is the son of Mr. Augustine Neale of Johnsontown, Charles county, Md.

The bride was attended by Miss Clementine McWilliams of Baltimore, and the groom by Mr. Thomas Matthews Neale of Washington. The ushers were Mr. Augustine Neale, Jr., of Washington, and Mr. William J. Edelen of Baltimore.

The bride's aunt is a Sister of Mercy, and in order that she might witness the ceremony Cardinal Gibbons gave special permission that the marriage be performed in the hospital chapel, which was beautifully decorated with the occasion with chrysanthemums, lilies and roses.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace. She wore an exquisite necklace of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a gown of rose chrysanthemums.

For every occasion. Even if not new, your lacy dance frocks must be immaculately fresh, or their charm is gone.

Dainty jabots, scarfs, slippers—the necessary accessories of the well-groomed woman—can be made to last three times as long if sent to Bornot for cleaning. Laces, ribbons, filmy veils—anything too fine to be entrusted to inexperienced hands—can be safely sent to us.
